EDUCATION

University of Victoria, Social Sciences — Bachelor's Degree

GRADUATING CLASS OF 2026

- With a major in Sociology and a minor in Gender Studies, my courses provide me with a deep understanding of intersectional feminism, anti-racism, structural inequalities, and social media.

RELEVANT SKILLS

Communication

- With nearly a decade of customer service experience, I can respectfully communicate with clients to meet their needs.
- As an experienced writer, I recognize the importance of clarity and accuracy in both my written work and verbal communication.
- My competencies with technology facilitate wider communication across cultural differences and language barriers.

Personal Management

- I approach every situation with honesty and integrity, never compromising my moral obligations to myself or others.
- I acknowledge my accountability for shortcomings and the supportive efforts of others that contributed to my successes.

Social Responsibility

- I pride myself on my adaptability to new environments, contrasting opinions, and knowledge beyond my own.
- My education in intersectional feminism allows me to consider how my decisions affect all those whose life experiences I do not share.
- Community responsibility and social equity are foundational to my ethical framework.

Commitment to Quality

- I am always looking for ways to improve the quality of my work so that it remains representative of my ideals and standards.
- When writing about an issue of social relevance beyond my positionality, it deserves persistent accuracy and complete respect.
